Stalin Exiles Jews to Siberia

NEW YORK,—Instead of liberating minority groups in the Balkans, Stalin's military and political agents are exiling them to Siberia and disregarding requests for the restoration of property.

That charge was made by Leon Dennen, representative of the International Rescue and Relief Committee, who has just returned from a nine-months stay in Turkey and the Middle East.

Sent to Instanbul last spring to aid the rescue of pro-Allied democratic persons in Axis-dominated countries, Dennen reported that the relief situation was acute and Allied bickering over food distribution was provoking a famine in the Balkans.

Thousands Deported

The author and former newspaper man indicated that the Communists are playing a game of Marxist imperialism in the Balkans.

"The situation of Romanian Jews—that is, of the 300,000 who survived—is critical," Dennen said.

"Thousands of Bessarabian and Bukowina Jews who have been repatriated from Transnistria and are regarded as Russian citizens are now being deported to Siberia."

When asked if this deportation did not conflict with Russia's never-proven claim that she was the "workers' fatherland" and the "haven of the oppressed," Dennen answered:

"I didn't go into Russia's motives, but the Romanian Jews were certainly puzzled and bewildered."

Dennen commended the assistance given by the Turkish government in facilitating passage of Jewish refugees from the Balkans to Palestine and said that Laurence Steinhardt, American Ambassador, had done a splendid job in aiding persecuted minorities.

Editor's Note: Stalin is interested in winning over the Romanian peasants who had been exploited by the Jews. Being realistic he banishes the Jews, the parasitic minority, to gain the collaboration of the productive majority.

Since the Jews betrayed their Romanian government, Stalin does not believe he can trust them either, besides, Romanian Jews are "capitalists."

HOUSE VOTES RAISE FOR POSTAL SERVICE

WASHINGTON,—The House voted to raise the pay of postal service workers.

It approved and sent to the senate legislation adding $400 annually to the basepay of regular employees. It also provides a 23 per cent boost for fourth class post-masters, special delivery messengers and part-time workers. A similar increase is provided third class postmasters for clerk hire.

Nearly every member of the house present spoke in favor of the bill which replaces a temporary $300 raise that expires next June.

Parking Meters Removed

CHULA VISTA,—The city council voted to remove the parking meters here on Dec. 11, by rescinding the ordinance which enforced the payment of parking meter fees. At the time of installation of the meters the public protested and for a while the chief of police was instructed not to enforce the ordinace, but as soon as it was enforced so much bad blood arose that the local manager of the meter company attempted to appease the motorists by removing every other meter. Nevertheless the meters were a nuisance and the citizens insisted that they had paid for the use of city streets in their taxes and grumbled against having to pay for the meter racket, too.

There had been 800 meters installed on June 23, 1944. It appears that from the parking meter collections the company got paid for the cost of the meters and installation and now receives the meters as a present to start the racket over again in some other gullible hick town. It is rumored that National City is to be the next victim.

My dear de Aryan:

Thanks for the pictures of my son which I received on Nov. 22nd with the information attached. I had never seen the pictures and had no knowledge of their being printed in any newspaper, and I am very happy to have them for our family scrapbook. I would be interested to know where you got them.

Yours sincerely, ED. FLETCHER.

Sir:

Thanks for the picture etc. of our son Maj. Ed Goree. You mailed to No. 1041 Cypress, S. D. Will you kindly let me know how you acquired same and has it been in any paper in San Diego? And who has been so kind to send to me.

Address Yours truly,
ROBERT G. GOREE,
Box 188, Coolidge, Arizona.

Editor's Note:

The War Dept.'s publicity office sends us pictures and news items which we cannot publish without doubling the size of our paper and spending a fortune on making picture cuts. So we forward the pictures and news to the next of kin who are happy to receive them.

Asphyxiation is not Influnza

Last Tuesday I went down town in San Diego and passing on the sidewalk at Third and Broadway, the east side of the street on Third avenue, two buses of the S. D. Electric Railway company were lined up to take new passengers. Their motors idling, spreading the deadly fumes of monoxide gas all over the sidewalk. Pedestrian traffic continued and I, too, foolishly, followed the crowd, going north. Just when I was abreast with the exhaust of the first bus, the driver gave it the gas, to pull out, and before I realized it I was enveloped in a cloud of blue exhaust gas. I walked quickly out of it but the damage was done.

Now I am suffering from a very painful ache in the upper lobes of the lungs. The inhaling of that hot monxide gas simply seared the lungs just as if they had been seared by a hot iron. The poison itself entered the blood stream and I felt sick, and now, 30 hours after, I am still sick, with a headache and the feeling of lassitude, wanting to do nothing, but otherwise the body is allright and fresh. These are the symptons of acute blood poisoning by inhaling monoxide gas.

Wednesday I had some business at the courthouse and while there decided to collect the renewal of a subscription from one of the judges. Sitting in his chambers we chatted as usual, when I make one of my rare visits, and the talk came upon the episode of the bus exhausts.

"It's a terrible situation," said the judge. "People who have to do business downtown, as we have here, and must pass through these gas infested streets must breathe in the fumes and then we wonder that the flu gets us so easily."

"I talked to Donald Hanson about it, yesterday, and he promised to take it up with Sam Mason. I am going to the law library and look up the Motor Vehicle Code because I have a recollection that there is a provision against it," said I.

"I hope you succeed, Mr. de Aryan. The buses should be compelled to be outfitted with vertical exhaust pipes that throw the poison gas high up into the air instead of spreading it down for us to breathe in. I have seen trucks that carry such exhaust pipes, why not buses?"

"I'll look up the law and see what success Don Hanson has with Sam. When I talked to Don he confessed that it was awful, so bad indeed, that when he gets behind a bus, he said, he holds his nose to be sure not to inhale till he is out of reach. He said that driving on the highway behind a bus is just as bad in that respect as meeting them afoot."

"I wish you every success, you can be sure that we are all behind you in this move. It's high time we get some improvement. People are sick and they don't know why."

So I looked up the law. SECTION 673.5 of the California Motor Vehicle Code 1943 says:

Exhaust Products. No motor vehicle shall be operated in a manner resulting in the escape of excessive smoke, gas, oil or fuel residue.

Fortunately for myself I have practiced systematic breathing exercises for 42 years and while it hurts like hell to take a full breath now, I take it anyway to force the poison out of the blood. But it is much easier to get poisoned than to clear it out. And it will take from one to two weeks for the seared lungs to heal, and that is painful when you breathe.

Besides, some of the body feels like doing nothing, but at the same time the non-poisoned portions of the body are all fresh and ready to go. Realizing this conflict between the two conditions, naturally, I encourage the healthy cells to assert themselves and get control. That's why I refuse to stop and even though I feel like laying down, I keep on moving and doing things to keep the blood circulating and fill it up with oxygen, while making long, LONG exhalations to force the poison out. In this fashion I shall cut the recuperation period in half and more.

Since the law prohibits filling up the air with excessive poison gas, the street car company is going around begging for a damage suit and somebody is likely to take advantage of it.

The Spreckels company is identified with old time San Diego. It did an immense pioneering job to make this city what it is. One does not feel as dealing with an alien, or enemy. Thus we expect Don Hanson who represents the various Spreckles interests, and Sam Mason, the manager of the street car company, a Spreckels subsidiary, to use the technological means available to throw the deadly poisons into the upper air where they can cool off and diffuse so that by the time they gravitate to the ground their poison effect has been eliminated. The company is making such unprecedented profits, they lowered the token fares to get rid of some of it and issued weekly dollar passes. They can do themselves proud by improving their bus exhaust facilities and prove that they are our friends and not soul-less corporations.

There is one crime the Spreckels companies committed against California. They imported cheap Japanese coolie labor to exploit them. We hope they don't fall prey to corporate greed again by exploiting the good nature of the public, but remedy the poison gas situation before it becomes necessary to call upon the authorities to enforce the law.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I understand your position in not sending "The Broom" to members of the armed forces and appreciate your kind reply to my letter with the enclosed subscription price returned.

But surely no one can object if a member of the Armed Forces requests that a subscription be sent to a friend as a Xmas present. Therefore I am sending the same money order to you with the request that "The Broom" be sent to my wife for a period of 6 months. Her address is — — —

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and successful New Year, Sincerely yours, Cpl. G. — —

More Thanks to Tenney

There is no ill wind that does not blow somebody some good.

When California State Senator Jack Tenney served me with a second subpoena of his un-American committee, during this war, ordering me to bring my subscribers list along that he may help the aliens and termites smear and boycott our readers, several friends who know that I would never be a party to such doings, were alarmed at the possible menace to my person and sent in funds to help me. All told I received about $1000. The largest single contribution was $500. These were personal gifts to me to fight for the Freedom of the Press in the U. S. A. against the termites.

I did not produce the subscribers' list and was not arrested for standing on my rights, so I used these contributions to give you a 9c paper of six pages for 5c which you pay in your subscriptions.

This is the Christmas season. If you are earnestly interested in the nature of Life the Christ-babe promises to those who dare keep His commandments, you will appreciate the gruelling task I have in this world. The powers that be are breaking every law of God to control the lives of humanity by force and violence. Whatever you give me personally I am returning it to you in His Service. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, remember: the brave shall be free!

WHY UPTON CLOSE WAS DROPPED

Dear Mr. — — —

The only information we are in a position to add to our published statement on the subject of Upton Close is that . . . .

You can appreciate that advertising is for the purpose of winning customers. . . . arrangements have been made for a new commentator on Sheaffer's Sunday half hour at 2:00 p. m. CWT—Max Hill. Mr. Hill has just recently been returned from overseas at our request. He is a man with first-hand information from the fighting fronts and with broad experience and independent background. We hope you will tune in on December 17th and on following Sundays and give Mr. Hill the opportunity to prove his worth as another great commentator.

Respectfuly yours,
W. A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPANY

Protests Bania's Mis-statements

My dear de Aryan:

I am afraid de Aryan you go to extremes to uphold and defend the wrong people for instance that "man" Banta now in jail in New York.

How can you defend a man of Banta's type who has made his living for over 20 years betraying Christian Patriotic organizations, and men and women, in general, Catholics never trusted him because he wore a Masonic Emblem. And even that he doublecrossed and betrayed for he did not pay any dues for years, always claiming to his Mother Lodge that he had no money, was sick, with a sick wife and was hungry most of the time—the big diamond ring on his finger gave the lie to that and his pocket book forever jammed with a big wad of bills.

And you are wrong when you say the three judges in Special Sessions Court are Jews, that is a misstatement of fact and I don't think you want to do that. Only one, Irving Ben Cooper, the Presiding Justice is a Jew. I have known Ben for over 20 years,

Cordially, EDWARD J. SMYTHE,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

The trial is over, lest Mr. Rogge's threat of re-indicting all, or some, of us becomes a reality.

Regarding the money received for the feeding of the Sedition Prisoners, following the last appeal of September, please will you devote some place in your paper to acknowledging the receipt of the following sums:

S. R. $5.00, P. M. 10.00, P. H. 20.00, J. A, 10,00, P. D. 3.00, B. R. 10.00, S. R. 5.00, E. B. 9.00, S. S. 5.00, M. P. 10.00, Total $114.00.

Due to the declaration of the mistrial by Judge Proctor on December 7, 1944, a total of $90.00 has been left for the nine internees to dispose of as they choose. All nine Sedition prisoners express their profound thanks for the generous contributions.

ERNEST F. ELMHURST.

Dear Kosti:

The last paper was a honey, truly a great man and a little, great paper. I hope that I am able to increase your subscriptions with the sample copies I am asking you to mail out. Your paper fits me for all sorts of moods, but at the end I remark, well done. I had hysterics over the article "Bedbugs", I have seen some in the woods and I know. Was raised in Vermont, coming to Mich. 30 years ago. I hope some day to live in a warmer clime, maybe I'll make it in my next life. Here are the names, — — E. K.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I have wanted to thank you for the article in the Broom of Dec. 4th—"THE SONSHIP OF GOD"— That is a marvelous article and if those of us who read it will try to pattern our lives by it how different this "Brave New World" can be. Along this line I have been thinking of a little poem and am enclosing a copy. Possibly it might well fill a small space in one of your issues,—if you care to insert it.

At this Christmas time when many people are sending cards and gifts only to those who have remembered them likewise in the past we can but say in the words of the little poem—"Yet what is a gift that is matched with a gift".

Sincerely — — — M. P.

The Value of Amendments XIV and XV

GUARARTEE OF PROTECTION TO ALL CITIZENS

SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; or shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SUFFRAGE NOT DENIED BECAUSE OF RACE, COLOR, OR SERVITUDE

SECTION I. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or any previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

BUT WHAT IS ACTUALLY HAPPENING?

The above paragraph plainly empowers the Congress to enact legislation by which colored people, of whatever ancestry, be enabled to vote, where the states keep them from voting. That means not merely vote for federal offices but for State offices as well, protecting the rights of American citizenship, where states violate the XIVth Amendment.

Because THE BROOM has held America to be white man's country, a Christian country, an Aryan country, if you please, ignorant individuals have construed this to mean that we preach race hatred against minorities in our midst. That ignorance is their fault and handicap, not ours. The average person lacks the appreciation of what it means to be a WHITE man, to be CHRISTIAN, to be ARYAN, to be AMERICAN. They substitute their ignorance for the truth and ascribe to us their prejudices. Because minority groups have abused the privileges offered by American citizenship, and we dared expose such abuse, these criminal minorities started to smear THE BROOM by claiming that we spread race hatred. It is natural to them, but gullible persons, as well as vicious persons, kept on spreading such notions.

In today's issue we are devoting much space to a letter by a Japanese boy who wrote us from his jail, in Wyoming, having been convicted of "conspiracy to violate the draft act." He describes so graphically the state of mind of an American citizen who discovers that he is not an American citizen in war time, and the suffering inflicted on him, his wife and new born baby, by the federal administration, because they were of Japanese ancestry, that we are publishing his view of the situation exactly as he described it.

* * * *

To our friends we wish to explain a very particular incident.. You know, this is the oncoming Christmas season. Each of us in the Christ service thinks of the Lord. And especially do I remember how the fugitive Savior, having been crucified, but resurrected, had to leave Judea. He had been declared legally dead and the authorities dared not arrest and crucify him a second time because it would have been too much of a confession for them to make in public that HE DID ARISE from the tomb. As soon as he was able to travel he left for parts on the east side of the Jordan river, thence to Persia, Tibet, China and finally found asylum, tranquillity and LIBERTY on a Japanese island where he died after 40 years, and was buried.

Every lover of the Christ was enjoined to discharge this debt we owe the race that gave him asylum, and in complying with this duty, we feel honored to be able to repay to the descendants of that race for the kindness they showed our Savior when he had been crucified and banished from his native land.. None but religious inclined people will appreciate what we are doing.

It is true that Japanese produce growers and merchants have abused the privileges of American citizenship by creating cartels in controlling the maketing of certain products. It is true that Jewish elements are taking over control of the U. S. federal administration and using the power of the black list to defy our Constitution. It is true that the South is in fear of Negro domination.

But it is equally true that the enlightened American, white man, Christian, if you please, knows how to meet all these situations and not abuse the powers placed in his hands for execution. Such is the grandeur of the Christian, of the Aryan, of the white American, that under terrific stress he holds to his covenant and betrays not his Lord. We know quite well that it was British greed and greed of the Yankee traders that brought negro slavery to our shores. We know that it was the greed of landholding corporations that brought Japanese laborers to California to exploit them. We know that many a Jew came here because America is the land of opportunity for the exploitation of the unwary. But it is the grandeur of the Christian mind that it finds the means to rectify all these transgressions without recourse to OGPU and GESTAPO means, or the 'Holy Inquisition.' For this reason we depict to you, that you may see and know how it feels to a Japanese youth, who was born here and raised in our schools, to suddenly discover through no fault of his, that he is an alien enemy suspect and treated as a criminal. What happened to him, may happen to a Negro, a Chinese, or any other religious or racial minority, even you.

Are They Citizens or Aliens ?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I saw your article pertaining to the fate of the Fair Play Committee (Japanese) members of Heart Mountain, Wyoming. Being as I had my residence in San Diego at one time and the opportunity to hear you on the radio while I was a student at San Diego State College, it is now a genuine pleasure to understand the full import of your BROOM and your tenacity in holding to the ideals of our Constitution. It is indeed pathetic to note that appreciation of your efforts should come so late until a portion of us should find ourselves behind barbed wires or in jails: And yet, how like human nature it is! As a child we shall think and act like a child. As we grow older at each phase of life we get to feel that life that is moving and challenging us in a more adult way. We American natives are so self-satisfied that until our own toes are treaded upon by other people's boots we are not likely to stir. We are so prone to let others think and vote for us. We believe that this great nation of ours, the wealthiest power in the world, can function thru the institutions built on the foundation rock of our Forefathers' ideals without our constant vigilance. Truly it is said, eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty!

Because I have felt that what has happened to me (convicted in federal court with the other members of the Fair Play Committee on charges of conspiracy to obstruct the draft) might someday happen to my fellow Americans of various races or colors, religion or faith, I am writing to you, partly in explaining to you something about the Fair Play Committee for your own knowledge, and writing you what I think is the belated urgency of the time so that if my deductions are true, that my fellow American citizens may not fall in the same pit-falls. It is rather late to do much about the gravity of any problem after being behind barbed wire confinement, guarded by sentries and with the dreadful searchlight from the towers ever reminding you where you are and what you are not and your limitations. Mind you what has happened to me has not happened in a fascist country, but right here under the flag of the "land of the free". It was as much a surprise to me as it is to you.

The tactics employed are no different than elsewhere where domination of the will of the people is their objective. Newspaper and the freedom of the press comes to mean a fight against opposition by smear tactics, the use of innuendos and bluffs to obtain their end in which the police department, the army or FBI is employed or threatened to be employed. Democracy is given lip service but never shown how it functions, neither is the meaning of "loyalty" or "patriotism" fully explained but used as a bait to catch the people as we would throw feed to entice the chickens onto our side of the fence. Causasian teachers who had made their debut in these "Concentration Camps" have complained that it is impossible to teach these children democracy after what we have done to them and as long as they see these grim reminders of these camps. Those too sympathetic are quickly ousted on some pretext or made uncomfortable so their stay would not be long. The socially stigmatic names are brot to play such as "pro-axis", radicals, demagogues, agitators, etc.

Leaving out the minor grievances—which affects the morale of the people, for these are many and seemingly large, that cannot be written down for lack of space,— I am pointing out to you some of the larger aspects of administrative dealings.

We wanted to be free people, but now pauperized, or existing on $16 a month, we could not relocate without first a clearance from Washington as if we were criminals. It was further impossible as it is now for many to relocate on a $25 leave grant. Neither was this $25 leave grant, plus the indefinite leave clearance, a passage to freedom. In fact it appeared more as a bribe to stay out of California for we cannot yet return. Also the indefinite leave subjected one to a status of parolee or alien where his whereabouts must be reported to the WRA offices. There were even restrictions to the Golden State of Colorado just south of us at one time —and Colorado is not on the Pacific coast.

U. S. citizens of Japanese ancestry were encouraged to be free people, to show their loyalty by joining the armed forces of the nation. We had to sign U. S. citizens of Japanese ancestry papers which no Negro, Irish, German, Italian, Jew are asked to sign. This procedure seemed akin to the German propaganda method of capturing allied airmen and letting them view the damage they had inflicted to make them feel guilty. No, the question of loyalty hasn't been the question with us. We have always been loyal, at least for my part if I cannot speak for others. It seemed too much to be done wrong and then to bear the burden of the wrong that was done us.

There are some who have long been on the STOP list, or black list and denied the privilege of egress & ingress from camp. He or she was virtually a prisoner—a civilian prisoner of war of his or her own country! If joining the army was a criterion to be free agents, such was not the case. If the youth passed the pre-physical examination they would be free citizens in the army. If they couldn't pass the test they maintained their old status on the stop list.

I don't know if I am ably showing you the discrepancies that exist. I am leaving out much about the personal hardships and about facilities and how they are living. The gov't. side of the story is beautiful and the pictures shown in Gen. DeWitt's final report are one-sided—rare pictures.

When the draft started the hitherto 1A citizens were pushed back, as an outmoded car in the blue book valuation, into 4C, an enemy alien classification. Now with the reopening many personal problems entered. 4C were being called without change to 1A. Others were quite peeved, for some were actually in the army and dismissed. Some had volunteered but were refused during pre-evacuation, still others knew not what idea they were fighting for—they had no home of their own, no property and no civil rights. The large bulk of them demanded clarification as civil rights were things to be gotten by serving in the army, but the army placed them in the category of an alien. Not only were we figuratively Japanese-Americans, we were literally hyphenated American citizens. This seems as a parallel to Lincoln's times. We cannot remain ½ free and ½ slave. Neither can we remain politically ½ Japs and ½ Americans. We wanted a clarification of our rights and status since thus far nothing has been decided legally of our status since evacuation. Thus we felt that anything arising out of evacuation (without having a trial) or detention was unconstitutional.

The number of people refusing to comply with the draft increased on personal and constitutional reasons. 63 boys in a mass trial was the largest mass trial in the history of Wyoming. The number still increases, not only from Heart Mt. but from other centers.

In light of the number of resisters the FPC (Fair Play Committee) must be looked at. I can best tell my feelings. I had a course in the American Constitution at San Diego State College in which I fared rather badly, but like a vision of the holy grail it returned to me with full significance, as it returned to countless others, but nevertheless only a handfull. Yes, some tried with desperate zeal to have the wrong righted immediately as if waking from a hideous dream come true. And those who tried so hard and not being able to achieve their end—in desperation, in frustration, bullied as pro-axis, finally wound up against us.

(To be concluded)

What's The Secret ?

By BENJAMIN DeCASSERES in the L. A. Examiner

Why do the United States and England make fish of Italy and Greece and fowl of Soviet Russia?

Secretary of State Stettinius' statement of December 4, directed mainly at the Churchill government, says that "the composition of the Italian government is purely an Italian affair," and that the United States "expects the Italians to work out their problems of government ALONG DEMOCRATIC LINES WITHOUT INFLUENCE FROM OUTSIDE."

He further says that "this policy would apply to an even more pronounced degree with regard to governments of the United Nations in their liberated territories."

These statements record the State Department's dissent from Churchill's antagonism to the ascension to power of Count Sforza in Italy and his endorsement of the monarchist regime in Greece.

WHY HAS OUR GOVERNMENT NOT SAID THE SAME THINGS TO SOVIET RUSSIA?

Why is it that "the composition of the Italian government is purely an Italian affair" and the composition of the governments of Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Iran and Finland is purely a Russian affair?

Why do "we expect the Italians (and presumably the Greeks and the Belgians) to work out their problems of government along democratic lines WITHOUT INFLUENCE FROM THE OUTSIDE" and remain fearsomely mum when Soviet Russia DOES NOT ALLOW the countries she forcibly annexes to work out their problems "along democratic lines?"

In 1939, after the infamous Stalin-Hitler deal which precipitated this war, did Soviet Russia allow the Baltic states and Poland "to work out their problems by democratic process"?

She DID NOT!

She treated these nations precisely as Hitler treats conquered nations—"Play the game our way—or else—".

Why, then, does our State Department slap Churchill in the face because he is interfering with Italian, Belgian and Greek affairs and salaam to Stalin for doing the same thing—only on a more colossal and dangerous scale?

If we have the courage to dictate to one of our Allies, England, why have we not the manhood to dictate to another one of our Allies, Soviet Russia?

And while we are on this important subject let us ask Mr. Churchill a pointed question:

Why does he condem the Communist movement in Greece and Italy, while supporting it in Yugoslavia and Poland?

All of which apparently boils down to this:

SOVIET RUSSIA CAN DO AS SHE PLEASES.

She can violate all agreements and "charters" and the comity of allies.

She can destroy "democratic processes" wherever she sees fit.

What secret power has made this Kremlin oligarchy exempt from criticism, let alone interference?

Is it FEAR of the sinister working of the worldwide Communist revolution—which is aimed mainly at the conquest of the United States?

EDITOR'S NOTE: There seems to be a confusion in the above. FDR is not the U. S. A.. But Stalin holds a copy of the pre-Pearl Harbor correspondence between Churchill and FDR on how to gain control of the world. It might be that Churchill and FDR must let Stalin do as he pleases unless they chance his revealing the text of the correspondence to the world. Tyler Kent read it, too, and is kept in a British jail.

FISH IN QUERY ON ULTIMATUM

WASHINGTON,—Representative Fish, New York, introduced a House resolution calling upon President Roosevelt to reveal whether, just before the Pearl Harbor attack, he sent an ultimatum to the Japanese emperor, despite a warning from the War and Navy Secretaries that it would bring war.

Fish told the House that a newspaper columnist has stated that the protest of War Secretary Stimson and Navy Secretary Knox was submitted to the President, "in writing", but that the President nevertheless sent the "ultimatum" to Emperor Hirohito on November 26, 1941, shortly before the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941.

Protests Cited

The resolution requests the President, "if not incompatible with the public interest, to inform the House of Representatives if the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of War did submit in writing protests against the sending of the ultimatum to Japan on November 26, 1941, and stating that it would bring war."

Use And Value of Ginseng

By Mrs. Joan Daglish

For thousands of years the Chinese and Indians have used Ginseng in their daily dietary. Users claim various benefits. It is a general health builder and tonic, useful in loss of appetite, stomach and digestive affections, arising from mental and nervous exhaustion. Consensus of opinion seems to indicate its value as a blood cleanser, also of the kidney and urinary passages. It has a very beneficial effect in different individuals. It is universally agreed upon that after using Ginseng for a short time the genital vigor is increased, and, since the genital glands are the foundation of youth, health, and longevity, we can understand why rejuvenation can be accomplished.

Other herbs are used for the same purpose, such as Damiana, but Ginseng is the most universally popular and efficient. While there are stimulants on the market, which only act temporarily, and sometimes deletorily, Ginseng authorities say that the root increases the production of sex hormones, invigorates and energizes the gonads, causing them to release to the blood more life-giving hormones, on which youth and vitality depend. These enzymes are the basis of good digestion and elimination of trouble from gas. The Encyclopedia Britanica says: "the roots resemblance to the body of a man being supposed to indicate that it could restore virile power to the aged and impotent". The book "The Herbalist" states:— "There are more than 400,000,000 Chinese and Koreans who place a high value on it as a remedy for many ills from the humblest citzen through all grades of society, including the most profound and esteemed scholarship, high officials, and Emperor. The inhabitants of China have for ages had unlimited faith in the medicinal power of Ginseng. It was formerly thought that they used it in their religious rites in a superstitious manner, but this has been investigated and found to be erroneous, as they use it altogether as a medicine, Besides using it in many ailments, a few of the wealthy use it as a preventative. While in Southern China, owing to the heat and moisture of their climate, Ginseng is taken infused with most of their drinks and taken even with some of their solid foods as a precautionary measure."

Quoting the publication, "New Scientific Discoveries in Regeneration": "The latest discovery from China is Ginseng, the rejuvenation herb, considered by the Chinese as the panacea of all diseases. It is believed by its adherents that ginseng overcomes disease by building up bodily vitality and resistence, and especially by strengthening the endocrine glands which control all physiological processes, including the metabolism of minerals and vitamins. Chinese Ginseng users consider as infantile western attempts at rejuvenation by monkey gland operations. Centuries of experience, among millions of people, have convinced them that in Ginseng there exists a natural means of rejuvenation, of restoring vitality to depleted glandular organs by feeding them with the mysterious radioactive elements that Ginseng has been proven to contain."

While the Chinese recommend the use of Ginseng as a general health and body builder, they use it specifically as a sexual invigorant and strengthener of the sex glands.

Emperor San-nung, who wrote about Soya, also wrote concerning Ginseng, 4,800 years ago, or 2838 B. C. He placed Ginseng at the head of the list of several thousand valuable herbs. It has been used extensively since then. Surely, if it were mere superstition, and did not produce results, it would have lost its reputation long ago. Instead, after 5000 years, its name and use is spreading throughout the world. Sir Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia" states: "Can all these millions of Orientals, all those many generations of men, who boiled Ginseng in silver kettles and have praised heaven for its many benefits, have been totally deceived?" No! And we are proving so from our own experience with Ginseng, and from the statements of other Ginseng users.

Ginseng produced in Natural Environment, Virgin Soil, Woods grown, Unsprayed, etc., is of higher virtue (this is the type we use), than that grown under artificial conditions.

Teddy's Opinion of FDR

Gentlemen:

I have received two copies of your "Broom" the October 16th and 23rd issue, please enclosed find $1.00 to pay for continuing copies after the issue of the 23rd until my investment is worn out. She is a wise duck that never squaks after sun-rise.

Well, foreign element, subsidized labor and agriculture plus his bureaucratic empire re-elected him to his fourth term spending spree with the invitation: Thy British Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in hell.—What a subjection! Now my view of the Republican and Democratic parties; there was practically no difference in the 1940 set up and very little in this 1944 set up. The main thing was to break up this more than two term tradition established by our former presidents down to the present perverter and his coat-tail disciples. One of the greatest mistakes the Republican presidents Coolidge and Hoover made when they vetoed the T. V. A. project which congress had passed in either case. The public has not forgotten the Electric Utility Companies swindle and the outright opposition to R. E. A. I have written a number of their leaders; they will have to change their monopolistic scandalous support from power magnates to a much more liberal support towards R. E. A and municipal ownership of electricity and water systems. We have taken action in Centuria here about 3 years ago to buy out the powerline in our village, on which the commission has set a valuation of $11,500—on which the power Co. has an approximate income of $2,000 a month—with their charter expired, they have carried it to court and lost, on to the State Supreme Court where it has been resting for over a year. I am in my 78 year. Just home from a gangreened appendix operation, which the doctor considered fatal after seening the condition. But here I am after 26 days. Those power companies employ every imaginable trick to beat the public. On financial matters Roosevelt and Dewey were hatched in the same incubator. My choice of the two, Bricker and Dewey, was the former, with whom I have corresponded. I wrote him that a British subject had made the statement prior to the nomination, that Britain preferred Roosevelt but Willkie or Dewey would do. — I just received my little paper MONEY—Big Bankers Win.

Now my definition on following: What constitutes a Rooseveltarian Democrat in 1944? "A chronic person, enveloped in a full-fledged Stalin front, provided with a strong Marx back, infused with squanderlust and "Raw-Deal" side-delivery, repudiating promises, stressing their musical harp with a "Cure-all" interlude, stimulated with a preparation of artificial Peruna. EXCHANGING MORTGAGES. After the Liquid becomes fully saturated in their diabolical system, they become devoted to prognostic leanings and the supercilliousness of being pre-eminent human individuals." No Copyright—

Here is hoping that the Republicans will have sense enough to break away from the dictation of the international bankers. Yours Resp.

G. F. FISCHER.

P. S. My folks served here during the Civil War to preserve the Union. Roosevelt is due for a fall he cannot continue his spending spree and carry on. Theodore helped the gang who got us in the World War I. He was loaded with the same traits. In 1908 Theodore handed out this one according to a report published in a forum-article of the St. Paul Dispatch, he stated: "Franklin D's sole ambition was to some day become president of the U. S.—Heaven forbid! If ever he is elected he will wreck the nation."

Dear Sir:

A neighbor loaned me the 'Broom'. As he moved to New York for the winter, I miss the paper so much that I want to subscribe for it for six (6) months. I read through Nov. 6 therefore would like to continue, beginning with Nov. 13. If it is more convenient to begin my subscription with Dec. 4 and count these back numbers of Nov. extra, am willing to do so. Please let me know how much each number is and will send the money as soon as I receive word from you.

Yours truly, — — — I. B.

My dear de Aryan:

Your article "Don't Sell America Short", delights me, and I hasten to write you regarding same.

Millions of Patriotic Americans are "Believe it or not" selling America short right at this minute, all through ignorance or through their damned indifference, but they are going to have a very sad awakening if they still keep on sleeping.

You should get in touch with Carl Mote, Indianapolis, Ind., and get a copy of his "America Preferred" July issue and reprint that article on Thomas Dewey. It certainly is a "Must" reading, and very educational.

What are we going to do to stop the PAC Political Action Committee headed by the Communist Sidney Hillman? . . . Now he has gone over to London, Eng. to organize labor under an International order, which has long been the Communistic dream of the International Jews.

For GOD'S sake keep on fighting, and keep hammering away at the sleeping and drugged Americans not to sell America short . . . don't be ashamed to yell from the housetops that we still are the Patriotic Minority believing in AMERICA FIRST.

Most Cordially Yours,
EDWARD JAMES SMYTHE.

Report on the State of the World

FUNDAMENTAL FACTORS THAT COMPOSE THE ACTION

To understand what is going on today, at home and abroad, we must isolate the elements which compound the whole.

The most potent element is the urge for Security. This operates from its source, the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man, spiritually; the physical needs of human Life. This element cannot be ignored and the promise of Peace and Security is dangled before the nose of the human ass who is driven to desperate efforts, including wholesale and retail murder, to achieve it.

The human races can, for present purposes of the picture, be roughly divided into three groups: The Aryans, the Mongols and the others.

The Aryan group are lead by the English-German-Americans; the Mongols by the 3 different leaders: Stalin, China, Japan; the third group contains India, Malay-Asia, and the Negroes.

A most peculiar factor enters as a parasitic outgrowth among the various groups. A factor who is neither wholly Mongol, Negro or Caucasian, the Jew. One finds this factor in every group. A peculiar psychological characteristic of the parasite is the fact that he considers himself superior to the host on whose life fluid he thrives. He imagines that he owns the host and that the host's purpose in life is to feed parasites. Hence the parasite teaches his offspring how to ensnare the hosts of human souls and exploit them, because "God decreed it that way".

In the Aryan group we find the 3 divisions which explain what is going on in the world today. The Individualist, the Feudalist, the Collectivist. These 3 divisions are not as clear in the Mongolian group and very dim in the others.

The Aryan group, of course, contains all of Europe and the British Empire, as well as America. This upheaval within the Aryan group is the real cause of the world turmoil. The Feudalists, the noble Lords of the Manor, the Crown, the landed Nobility, refuse to let go the strangle hold they have upon their subjects and peons. They are Imperialists. It was knocked out in Germany with the flight to Dorn, in Russia with the assassination of the Romanoffs, but it is strong in Holland, Belgium and England. Since Italy, Greece, Spain, Romania still hold to feudalism, the Catholic hierarchy encouraged Fascism to regain control of their large land holdings in Spain, Germany, etc. The Vatican is playing all sides of the street to hold it's racket.

The Jew, like all groups, is also divided in 3 directions. The individualist, or emancipated Jew, the fanatic orthodox and the fanatic Communist Jew. The individualist has joined in with the individualist Aryan. One finds them mostly in the U. S. A. The fanatic orthodox occupies the slums and there one also finds the Communist Jew who is a Mongol and whence he works himself up into "society".

The British Empire is Feudalistic. Churchill works for it. Peonage plain and simple. That explains why they support royalism in Belgium, Fascism in Spain, the King in Italy, Greece and Holland.

Stalin leads the collectivists and being himself half white and half Mongol he attracts the support of Communistic Jews.

Rothschild, super-parasites, live off the British-French-Dutch as their host and America, where all 3 divisions, individualists, feudalist, collectivist, are now churning in the melting pot, has come to be his host also, especially thru the great bondage placed upon the people since the wars of Independence up to date. The Rothschild banking system controls our issuance of "money". We cannot "spend" a penny without paying tribute to Rothschild and his allied banksters.

Instead of dividing humanity into Allies and Axis, look at it from the 3 divisions of individualist, Feudalist, Collectivist.

Socialism is the anti-dote of the moron to Feudalism. You find them side by side in every empire. In Russia, which is by far the most backward country among Europeans, the serfs were easy prey for the Socialists. Now it's spreading as the anti-dote to Feudalism.

In the U. S. A. we have the cream of humanity. The American is individualist. He is up against the British Feudalist and the Jewish-Russian Communist. The salvation lies in returning to fundamentals. The Fatherhood of God insures God-given rights of the individual. All he needs do is not give them up but exercise them inspite of the British and the Jew-Communists. And instead of collectivism and collective bargaining, the individualist practices the Golden Rule. This spells individual freedom and social security.

Dear Sir:

Have read your article in the "how to Live for Health and Strength" by Dr. Clements in the May 1944 magazine.

Would like to know why you went to jail, I can imagine the very reason.

I am also very strong against any body smoking in public, but so far nothing has been done about it.

Thanking you, I remain,

Very truly yours,—E. P.

P. S.—Enclosed please find self-addressed envelope for reply.

IN SEARCH OF THE HOLY GRAIL

Dear E. P.:

Well, I see where D. Clements' article in his 'How to Live For Health and Strength' magazine of Sebring, Fla., is still producing inquiries. I suspect the answer which you are about to receive is more than you imagined.

There lives a mysterious force in the heart of everyone of us that bids us dare and gives us no peace but urges us on and on and on. It is the Life force of our beings. For want of a better word some people call it God. And in describing it they discover that it is the very focus of all the virtues, aspirations, ambitions and dreams of the highest spiritual, physical and emotional nature in us. This life giving source Jesus called the Father in me, in you.

We are His living image to the extent that we live in His likeness.

Here and there one reads and hears that some human dared take these teachings literarily and, like the scientist in his laboratory, is putting them to a test in his own life. It is a gruelling test because you are then not experimenting on someone else, like the vivi-sectionist, but are trying the teachings out on yourself.

Well, I am one of those whom history records as a truth seeker. I am quite certain that Jesus spoke scientifically and truly when he said "Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven and its Righteousness and you'll fall heir to all these things in addition." By these things is meant the good things of earthly existence.

It is most remarkable that a people will gamble its life, existence, sanity on War but not on the Kingdom of God. War is hell and people give their children to serve Satan, break everyone of the Commandments but will not risk all they are and have to FIRST seek the Rule of God and its Righteousness.

Being confronted with the choice between God's Rule and Satan's rule, I simply have chosen to gamble my life in adhering to the TRUTH, step by step as I recognize it and instead of calling it idealistic and unpracticable, I call it realistic and practice it. Naturally the denizens of Hell, then, claim that I conspired to overthrow the reign of Satan on earth and demoralize his soldiers and had me thrown in jail.

That is the whole thing in a nutshell. I was charged with conspiring to demoralize the "Commander's-in-chief" armed forces in the city of Washington, D. C., and Assemblyman Jack Tenney, of the un-American investigating committee of the California legislature, started the ball rolling by giving me a public hearing in which I never recanted my allegiance to the truth in place of the New Deal. I suppose you have read the political campaign poem "Rejected" where FDR rang the bell and the Devil answered it but rejected him for fear that he met Beelzebub in person. There is more truth than poetry to it.

I am sending you a few copies of my weekly BROOM which is fearlessly presenting the facts about daily events the world over as I happen to notice them.

Sincerely,

C. LEON de ARYAN.

CHATS WITH GLADYS

"Honi Soit Qui Mal Y Pense"

(Conclusion)

"Well, then it must have been in the cards. There are thousands who know me and it would sound a terrific danger signal in them to which many would react and take measures for their own protection. But as far as I am individually concerned, I would not leave the scenes till the work I am to do now is done, if not through me, then through others. I'd use my freedom of ethereal and astral movement to read the minds of those who plot against our nation and principles of life and then I'd use measures to expose them."

"But if you had no material body how would people know what you discovered?"

"Child, if thought transference were not effective, if telepathy were to fail, then, may the Lord have mercy on the termites, for things, then, will pop. Just to give you an actual example. 40 years ago, when I was 18 my people locked me up in an insane asylum to cure me, as they said, from being a vegetarian and Theosophist. I had no means to defend myself. After I learned the lesson for me in that incarceration and the time arrived to get out, things just popped and I tell you, they asked me to get out of that hospital, they were as scared as if a ghost was haunting them."

"Go ahead, tell me, I am listening . . . "

"There was a young Ruthenian, a Slav, who had hired out as a male nurse, he was in charge of my ward. One day he beat me up because I ignored his arrogant orders. A school chum, a neighbor boy, called to visit me and I told him how that man had beaten me up. Believe it or not, that very instant, 5 miles distant from the hospital, in the suburb where the Ruthenian lived near Czernowitz, he jumped up as if he had seen a living ghost and started raving. His wife had to call the police and they brought him to the very insane asylum I was in and after a few days he was assigned as a patient to my ward. We visited and he asked me to forgive him, but he died in a few days from the treatment they had given him."

"It that why they asked you to get out?"

"It was not quite so simple. My folks were influential in Czernowitz and the priest had filled them full of fears that I would lose my soul and go to hell forever if I was not cured of those Theosophical heresies. Mother burned up my whole library of valuable and rare books I had bought with money I earned tutoring other boys at quite a high rate of pay, because I was good at it. The medics were in cahoots with the priest because I claimed that the whole meat diet, with serums and vivisection, was a devilish invention to keep people in subjection so they won't ever dare think for themselves and emancipate themselves from the religious and medical racket."

"You say you were 18?"

"Yes, I started at 15. I was born that way and at 15 asserted myself against my family and authorities. I have no use for assumed authority which contradicts truth and principle. I am not afraid of them because the universe conspires with me against the law breakers. They always come to fall in the end. So when I had figured out what my lesson was in that insane asylum there was no further need of my staying there. But my people insisted that I stay till I was cured."

"And were you?"

"Sure I was cured of ever believing a word of what doctors and priests say. Or putting my trust in family or in government by brute force. They had taught me a lesson I have never forgotten. Whoever places his faith in the arms of flesh is a fool. So I got cured. My trust is solely in God and in the RULE, or order, of LAW in this universe where Principle RULES not arbitrariness. There is no favoritism in eternal LAW. That's the lesson I had to learn to be ready to go into the world and teach it effectively. And when I realized it, but my people insisted in keeping me locked up and the authorities complied, I went in my heart to MY FATHER and complained about it."

"What happened?"

"I warned every doctor and guard, every nurse and keeper in that institution that they had no right to hold me. As they laughed at me, suddenly an epidemic of accidents and incidents broke loose: The director went temporarily insane. The assistant director, all of them medics, also had an attack of persecution mania. Anybody in that whole institution who as much as gave me a cross look went home and discovered some disaster in their family circle. Or else something happened to them personally."

"How did they let you out?"

"Since I was a minor they could not let me out unless my mother came to get me. And mother was scared stiff by the medics and the priest. They even had talked her into believing that I was likely to go crazy during the night and kill her. So the guards took things into their own hands. They were sure I was 'a man of God' as they called it, and they passed the word along to police and gendarmes of what was happening to all who hurt me. They received the promise of the privates in ranks that everybody would look the other way should I break out and get across the border from Bucovina, which at that time was Austrian, into Roumania. Then they told me where to find my clothes at night and through what window to get out, and really, near the border, one guard who recognized me gave me the high sign, because he too, was not going to have the jinx haunt him, and that is how I crossed into Roumania".

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

A friend has brought me several copies of your paper, which of course is not new to me, but these have caused me to immediately send you the price of a year's subscription and ask you to get the paper coming to me as soon as possible.

You may recall that it was me who worked with you in trying to do something for a Mr. Averill in Grand Rapids, whom the powers that be decided must be stopped from editing his little paper. I am herewith enclosing a copy of an article which is more than 53 years old, on the Jewish question, and which reveals some startling FACTS. I have submitted this to other publishers who have not seen fit to reproduce it at this time.

I am also enclosing a clipping from our local paper with a communication which I sent in to the paper at election time. You should, if you have not done so before, go to the Congressional Record and read for yourself, the 4th chapter of "Propaganda In The Next War". This would seem to show very clearly that Pearl Harbor was in the minds of old John Bull long before it happened. Senate Vol. 84, No. 82, page 6,600-6,603.

RETIRE DEWEY, FISH DEMANDS

WASHINGTON,— Representative Hamilton Fish, New York, suggested in a bitter attack on Governor Thomas E. Dewey that the 1944 G. O. G. presidential nominee be "eliminated" as head of the Republican Party and a coalition formed with "real Democrats" for the 1948 election.

"Governor Dewey's political days are numbered," stated Fish in a House speech. "He has been weighed in the political scales and found wanting. For the best interests of the Republican Party and the nation, he should be retired to his farm at Pawling and cease giving advice on national and international issues to Republicans in Congress and the nation."

Fish blamed his own defeat for reelection after 24 years in Congress on what he termed "Governor Dewey's intolerance and false statements denouncing me as un-American and raising a religious and racial issue."

Melker's Letters To The Sanhedrim

He was priest of the Synagogue at Bethlehem when Jesus was born, and describes the phenomena that occured there that night, in his own words. This was translated from the Talmuds of Byzant.

We, as Jews, place too much confidence in the outward appearance, while the idea we get of the kingdom of heaven is all of a carnal nature consisting of forms and ceremonies. The prophecies referred to and many other passages that I might mention, all go to show that the kingdom of God is to begin within us, in the inner life, and rule there, and from the inner nature all outward actions are to flow in conformity with the revealed and written teachings and commands of God. So is the spirit of prophecy. While it uses the natural organs of speech, it at the same time controls all the faculties of life, producing sometimes a real ecstacy, not mechanical, nor loss of consciousness, though cut off for the time from external relations. He is thus circumscribed, to speak as did Baalam, the words of God with human life. This is to be held by us Jews as of the first and greatest importance, and we are to remember that his prophecy has the same reference to the future that it does to the past, and has respect to the whole empire of man. While it specifies individuals and nations, it often has reference to doctrines and principles, and in this light Israel is the result of prophecy as a nation with her religious teachings. So is this virgin's babe born to be a ruler of all nations of the earth. The Torah itself goes back to prophecy, as well as every prophet stands on the Torah, and on this rests all prophecy pronouncing condemnation on the disobedient and blessings on the faithful. It was on this principle that the covenant of inheritance was made with Abraham, and in reality, so made with David. Thus all the promises, political, ethical, judicial and ritual, rest on the Torah. In short, the whole administration finds its authority in the prophetic vision, as set forth by the commands of God, to regulate human life—commencing in the inner life and working outward, thus advancing on from individuals to nations.

The Messianic prophecy has no other justification than this. On this rests the Church, and on this rests the theocracy. On this rests the glory of the future kingdom of God upon earth.

The whole chain of prophecy is already fulfilled in this babe, but the development is only commencing. He will abolish the old cultus forever, but with man it will develop commensurate with time itself. There are many types in the shadow, in the plant, in the animal. Every time the Romans celebrated a triumph on the Tiber it shadowed forth the coming Caesar; so every suffering of David or lamentation of Job, or glory of Solomon—yea, every wail of human sorrow, every throe of human grief, every dying sigh, every falling, bitter tear—was a type, a prophecy of the coming King of the Jews and the Saviour of the world. Israel stands as a common factor at every great epoch of history. The shading of the colors of the prophetic painting does not obliterate the prediction of the literal Israel's more glorious future in the kingdom of God. Her historic calling to mediate salvation to the nations is not ended with this newcomer on the stage of carnal life. The prophecy is eschatological, refining the inner life as well as shaping the outer life in conformity to good laws. Looking also to the end of time and its great importance to us, it has something to teach and we have something to learn. Along the ages past all the great, good and happy have first learned their duties, and then performed them; and thus for thousands of years Israel has stood, hope never dying in the Hebrew heart, and has been the only appointed source of knowledge of the true God preserved. And this day she stands as the great factor and center, around which all nations of the earth must come for instructions to guide them that they may become better and happier.

These secret scrolls which we Jews received from God by the hand of Moses, are the only hope of the world. If this was lost to mankind, it would be worse than putting out the sun, moon and all the stars of the night, for this would be a loss of sacred light to the souls of men. When we consider the surroundings, there has never been a time more propitious than the present for the establishing of the true religion, and it seems, by reviewing our history for hundreds of years past, that this is the time for the ushering in of the true kingdom of God. The nations of the earth that have been given to idolatry are growing tired of placing confidence in and depending on gods that do not help them in the hour of danger, and they are now wanting a God that can and will answer to their calls.

King Herod sent for me the other day, and after I related to him of the God of the Jews and his works, of the many and mighty deeds he had performed for our fathers and for us as a nation, he seemed to think, if there was such a God as we professed, it was far better than to depend on such gods as the Romans had made, of timber, stone and iron, and even the gods of gold were powerless. He said that if he could know that this babe that was declared by the angels, was such a God as he that saved the Israelites in the Red Sea, and saved David, and those three from the fearful heat of fire, he woud have pursued quite a different course toward him. He was under the impression that he had come to drive the Romans from their possessions, and to reign as a Monarch instead of Caesar. And I find this to be the general feeling throughout the world, so far as I can hear; that the people want and are ready to receive a God that can demonstrate in his life that he is such a God that the race of men can depend on in time of trouble; and if he can show such power to his friends he will be feared by his enemies, and thus become universally obeyed by all nations of the earth. And this, I fear, is going to be the trouble with our nation; our people are going to look to him as a temporal deliverer, and will aim to circumscribe him to the Jews alone; and when his actions begin to flow out to all the inhabitants of the world in love and charity, as is most certainly shown forth in the ninth section of the holy prophet, then I fear the Jews will reject him; and, in fact, we are warned of that already in the third section of Jeremiah's word. To avoid this Israel must be taught that the prophecy of Isaiah does not stop with the Babylonian captivity and return to the kingdom of heaven, and that Ezekiel's wheels do not whirl politically nor spiritually in heaven, but upon earth, and have reference to earthly revolutions or changes, and show the bringing to pass of the great events of which this of Bethlehem is the grandest of all.

Neither is the outlook of Daniel to be confined to the shade of the Maccabeean wall of Jewish conquest. Nor are these great questions to be decided by our unsuccessful attempts to find out what the prophet meant or what he might have understood himself to mean, but from the unity, totality and organic connection of the whole body of prophecy, as referring to the kingdom of this world becoming subject to the kingdom of the Saviour of all men. We, as Jews, are the only people that God has entrusted with the great questions, and of course the world will look to and expect us to give interpretation to these questions, and, as we are entrusted with these things, God will hold us responsible if we fail to give the true light on this subject. Up to this time I am fearful the Jews as a nation are as much divided, and perhaps as much mistaken as to the nature of his works, as any other people. I find, by conversing with the Romans, Greeks and others, that all their knowledge of these things of Jewish expectation in a Redeemer has been obtained from the Jews, either directly or indirectly, and it was through them Herod got the idea of his being a temporal King, and to rule and reign by the might of carnal weapons; whereas if we consult the spiritual import of the prophets, his office is to blend all nations in one common brotherhood, and establish love in the place of law, and that heart should throb high with love to heart and under this rule a universal peace. Wherever one should meet another, they would meet as friends, for what else can the prophet mean, in section nine, where he shows that this King shall destroy all carnal weapons and convert them to a helpful purpose, and thus become the active worker in doing good to all men and teaching all men to do good to each other?

By reading all the scrolls of God we find that the unity and totality of all the prophets go to bear us out in this idea, and all have reference to this Babe of Bethlehem. If we consult them as to the time, taking the revolutions of Ezekiel's wheels, they show plainly that the revolutions of the different governments of the world fix this as the time. Next, consult them in regard to the individuals connected with this great event. These are pointed to as the virgin wife, by Zechariah; next the place has been pointed out and named; then the light and the appearing of the angels have all been set forth, and also the opposition of the Romans has been declared. Now, I ask the High Court of the living God to look well on these things, and tell us how men that lived in different ages of the world, that lived in different portions of the country—men that never knew each other—men that had no personal interest in the subject as men—men that jeopardized, and some of them lost, their lives on acount of having uttered these prophecies—how could they all point out the place, the time, and the names of the parties as plain and clear, if it were not revealed to them and ordained by God himself? I understand that the Romans and some of the priests have been saying that Zechariah was a hypocrite, and that Mary a bad woman. Such might be the case as far as man is able to judge; but who, I ask, can forge such truths as these prophecies and make them come true? Or who can cause light to descend from heaven and the angels to come down and make the declaration that this was the Son of God, King of the Jews?

Noble Masters of the Sanhedrin, I was not alone. I am not the only witness of these things. The principal people of Bethlehem saw them and heard them as I did. I would say to you, if this is not the Jew's King, then we need not look for any other; for every line of prophecy has been most completely fulfilled in him, and if he does not appear and save his own people I shall despair that we have misinterpreted the meaning of all the prophets. But I feel so sure that this is he, I shall wait in expectation and with much anxiety, and I have no fears of any harm befalling him. All the Romans in the world can not harm him; and although Herod may rage, he may destroy all the infants in the world, the same angels that attended his birth will watch over him through life, and the Romans will have to contend with the same God that Pharaoh did, and will meet with similar defeat.

The Message of the Christ-Child

The next issue of THE BROOM will be dated Dec. 25, and you will receive it later. I hope you have sent in your mite in the meantime that we may continue issuing the 6-page paper. When you are paying in your taxes billions for destruction of human lives and property, you certainly must find a way to invest at least a small portion of your productive energies for the assurance of human rights to think, speak and act forthrightly, as God impels you, for you are built in His divine image and cannot be happy, find peace, health and prosperity, till you obey and execute the noblest impulses you are capable of expressing.

The Mesage of the Christ-child and the message of The Broom to the world are identic. We serve the Christ.

The simplicity of it is a veritable miracle and because it is simple, smart and crooked minds cannot conceive its truth.

Today you find the whole naked, cruel, murderous shambles of the war for Democracy revealed in its race for power over the hapless peoples of Europe and Asia. Stalin takes the northern portions, England the southern territory and the people must submit or be bombed and "tanked" out of existence, with the lend-lease means we are supplying by forcible taxation.

Language is not used to express the truth, but to mask the truth.

They say things to allay your suspicions and fool you into placing your lives and fate into their hands, what they do is an entirely different thing.

Jesus came into the world to synchronize Thought, Word and Deed. That, first, we may seek the Truth, and know it, for it alone is right, and having found the rule of righteousness then the material universe itself is at our service. Then, and only then, can we bring heaven upon the planet and enjoy the gifts of divine ingenuity and creation, in peace.

By the example of our productiveness for war, supplying 10 million Allies with the wherewithal to kill and destroy, we have an object lesson of what we could do, were we united in the Christ service to serve the Lord as faithfully as we serve the Demons of war today.

Simplicity is the Keyword of the Christ message. Be simple like a little child, be frank, natural, honest.

The Broom is sweeping a path right into the den of our criminal world and home politicians. We dare place our faith in the simplicity of the Christ, in the integrity of one's word, in the execution of our covenant. This brings out individual character.

The message of the Christ is to the individual. You are free to chose. Collective bargaining does not open the gates to heaven. You have heaven within you if you dare obey the still small voice of the Christ in your own heart. Be true to it, dare to live up to it. This alone brings salvation.

May you, one and all, be brave enough to recognize this simple truth. May you dare to stand with it as shining examples of the Christ power in the world and may you in this spirit enjoy a Merry Christmas, with love in your heart for all men, regardless of race, class, creed or material condition. Amen.

1917 Sedition Law Unconstitutional

Conclusion of a 50-page appeal brief filed in U. S. Supreme Court by Wm. J. Powers and Jas. J. Laughlin on behalf of Ellis O. Jones and Robert Noble. Citations are ommitted.

In placing on the statute books Secs. 33 & 34 of Tit. 50 USC, the Congress has duplcated the Statute Edw. III inasfar as the uncertainty of an adequate definition of the overt acts prohibited is concerned. Like the English statute, intent is the gist of the action & the overt act may include such diverse things as argument with women against war, for alleging in an endless chain letter that the President was wrong in saying that Germany had agreed to cease submarine warfare, for presenting a moving picture depicting the Wyoming massacre, far making threats against members of the draft board, for alleging he preferred an old pair of trousers over the schoolhouse to the flag, for statements made at the private home that war was caused by moneyed men, for abusive language directed at the President & the government in a railway construction camp, & many others of similar inconsequential import. The ambiguities and uncertainties in the statute render it a flexible weapon in the hands of the prosecutor & leaves the citizen unaware of the fact he is violating the law until he is suddenly indicted for doing an act which he has been trained from childhood to believe was his privilege as a citizen and a privilege guaranteed by the First Amendment.

In addition the Congress has seen fit to place on the statute books two statutes covering the same subject matter as Secs. 33 & 34 off Tit. 50 USC. The Alien Registration Act of 1940 contains the same language as part of Sec. 33 while the "Overthrow" section of that statute can be made to cover all of the acts prohibited by Secs. 33 & 34 of Tit. 50, while the Selective Service Act covers the same area as another portion of Sec. 33. Both of the later statutes reduce the penalty for violation &, it is submitted, the later statutes provide ample machinery to create those "artificial treasons" by which alternate parties in power may "wreak their alternate malignity on each other" and on the citizenry. In addition, allowing all three acts to remain on the books permits the prosecutor to choose the statute claimed to be violated & thus determine the maximum penalty &, further, it in fact abolishes the constitutional protection against double jeopardy insofar as sedition prosecutions are concerned. The later acts being the last expression of Congress hence repeal the former act.

It is respectfully contended that by the adoption of a written Constitution, defining the crime of treason in narrow limits (Art. III, Sec. 3) it was the intention of the delegates, once & for all time, to abolish in this country prosecutions for words said or books & papers printed which prosecutions had stained the pages of British law with the blood of numerous otherwise innocent victims for over a century.

It can scarcely be assumed that the delegates to the convention were unaware of the British law of constructive treason or that it was not thoroughly debated in drawing up the definition of treason in the constitution. Of 55 accredited delegates, 31 were lawyers, 10 members of the British bar & 3 were professors of law.

In any event, Madison made the intention of the convention clear to the public in the Federalist & apparently assumed that public would understand & interpret his reference to "new fangled and artificial treasons."

It is submitted, therefore, that Secs. 33 & 34 of Tit. 50 USC are unconstitutional because they are ambigous in their terminology. Further they were repealed by implication by the Alien Registration Act of 1940 & the Selective Service Act of 1940 &, finally, they are unconstitutional because, being vague & uncertain, they permit prosecution for acts not otherwise criminal in violation of the intention of the constitutional convention in defining the crime of treason narrowly & in violation of the implications contained in that definition when read in conjunction with the British law of treason & sedition.

NOTES ON SEDITION TRIAL

WASHINGTON,—Many believe that the prosecution was secretly more jubilant about Eicher's death than were the defendants, because it gave them just what they had been looking for—a way to get out of a bad mess without loss of "face". Of course one would not go so far as to say that in dying the judge was merely sustaining another of Rogge's motions.

If there is a new trial on the same indictment, it must start from scratch with all preliminary pleadings etc. These may be presented more effectively than before.

An attorney who recently had occasion to visit many cities from coast to coast reports that lawyers and judges whom he met are almost unanimous in ridiculing the trial and declaring that it is a foul blot on American jurisprudence and particularly upon the set-up in the District of Columbia.

The sedition trial has incidently brought to light much mismanagement, favoritism and corruption in the U. S. Bur. of Prisons. May lead to congressional investigations.

PREDICTION OF THINGS TO COME

The so-called "sedition" trials in Washington will probably be dropped.

All judgments for contempt imposed on Laughlin, Dilling, Jones, Koehne, St. George, by Judge Eicher, will probably be reversed by court of appeals or otherwise disposed of without further ado.

Do not be surprised if Attorney Buckley is indicted for perjury on account of the false testimony he gave against Laughlin in the Baltimore trial.

Also do not be surprised if James Bennett is also indicted for the same thing because of allegedly false testimony given at the same Laughlin trial.

JONES AND NOBLE APPEAL

WASHINGTON,—Attys. Jas J. Laughlin and Wm. Powers, Chicago, have just filed a brief with the U. S. Supreme Court on behalf of Ellis O. Jones & Robert Noble, appealing from their conviction in the U. S. Court in Los Angeles, July, 1942.

This appeal does not go into the trial record, but is based solely on constitutional grounds. The main ground is that the law involved, the so-called war-time sedition law of 1917 as amended, is unconstitutional because two laws covering practically the same ground, the Alien Registration Act of 1940 and the Selective Service Act, have since been passed which is tantamount to repealing the earlier enactment. This is alleged to be a well-established view to take.

The law in question is not that under which the indictment was brought in the mass trial in Washington in recent months. That one is the 1940 act. But an attack on the 1917 law is of prime importance not alone because it involves Jones and Noble, as there are some 200 other patriots, including Wm. Dudley Pelley, who have been convicted under the same law and who would be freed if the law were found to be unconstitutional.

Wm. J. Powers is one of the leading constitutional lawyers in the U. S. He was attorney for Hartzel in the epoch-making victory last spring. Jas. J. Laughlin, long known as the leading criminal attorney in Washington, D. C. has lately gained nation wide favorable recognization by his fine work in the mass "sedition" trial. He is said to have had over 2500 cases in and about Washington.

NEW BAIL UNJUSTLY REQUIRED . . . . .
ODDITIES OF NEW DEAL JUSTICE . . . . .
INFAMOUS "FEPC"—HITLERISM IN REVERSE.

WASHINGTON.— December 10—Although it appears unlikely that the 26 victims of New Deal persecution will ever again be called to answer the weird indictment under which they were tried for seven months, they were ordered to post NEW BONDS when the mistrial was ordered by Justice James M. Proctor on December 7.

The "justice" of this harsh requirement is hard to understand.

Fifteen of the so-called "sedition" defendants had been under two previous indictments and had posted in most cases heavy bail, some as high as $5,000 and $7,500. Two others were in the second indictment, under which they had posted bail.

ALL ON BAIL HAD POSTED NEW BAIL FOR THIS THIRD INDICTMENT.

Now, although still under this indictment and the mistrial not affecting it in any way, the defendants, already impoverished by the years of persecution, are now called upon to post NEW bonds, averaging around $1,500, the bondsmen's fee being at the rate of five percent.

The only bondsman to surrender his client immediately, was that of Edward James Smythe; he was placed in the district "bull pen". A lady from New York, Mrs. Mattie Smythe, came (by plane, it was said) and posted $1,000 in cash, releasing him.

Prosecutor Rogge has announced that he has no announcement to make about the case—at least not very soon. The future of the case—"nolle pros"; continuance under a new judge and jury; severance into smaller groups for trial here; or an attempt to obtain indictments of individuals or small groups in different States—will depend upon the decision of attorney-general Biddle.

New indictments are hardly possible, except in a few cases, on account of the statute of limitations, which will now run to protect practically all defendants.

* * * *

(The small letters in parenthesis are for later reference):

"The alleged seditionists (a) made such a farce (b) of American justice that the government (c) now is reluctant to test its right (d) to jail those whose acts (e), it is charged, gave comfort (f) to the nation's enemies.

"Many of the defendants in the mass conspiracy trial were admitted (g) friends of Nazi agents. Others strutted about in uniforms of the Ku Klux Klan and the German American Bund. (h) Some were publicly proud of their program to liquidate millions of Jews and Catholics. (i) . . . .

"Almost a decade of painstaking FBI investigation and three years of Justice Department legal work may be wasted. (j)

"Attorney-general Biddle is reportedly thinking of quashing the indictments. Despite the mistrial, these NATIONALISTS still are charged with having attempted (k) to spread mutiny among servicemen."

SHOULD BE RETRIED?

Riesel continues, "Biddle would be doing a great injustice to liberals, to labor and religious minorities if he uashed the indictments . . . . He can sever the defendants and try them either individually (l) or in small groups in the Federal district courts where they once set up their ANTI-SEMITIC headquarters. . . . .

"Big Joe McWilliams, for example could be tried here in New York (m), only a few miles from the street corners where he once incited to riot." (n).

* * * *

I have indicated by small letters in the foregoing Riesel blather FOURTEEN errors, which are, however, characteristic of the left-wing reporting of the famous persecution. Here are the corrections:

(a) "Alleged seditionists." The defendants are not accused of sedition, but of conspiring to "cause insubordination".

(b) The "farce" was Mr. Biddle's in ever trying a "mass trial" a la Moscow.

(c) It is NOT "the government" which is prosecuting, but the Department of Justice, which is a part of the "administration" of the government of the U. S. It plainly is NOT the government.

(d) Neither the government nor the Department has any "right" to jail anyone without a fair and impartial trial in the "district" where the crime was alleged to have been committed. In eight months the prosecution never once established jurisdiction and venue in the District of Columbia.

(e) The defendants were not accused of ANY criminal ACTS, but only that they "conspired" to do so.

(f) It is not charged that they gave any "comfort" to the "enemy". That would be a charge of TREASON. Get this clear: ALL the "testimony" introduced in seven months failed to bring out a single "act" committed since Pearl Harbor; and prior to that date, America did NOT HAVE A SINGLE ENEMY NATION in the world.

(g) There was no evidence introduced to show that any defendant was a "friend" of a 'Nazi' agent", and if they had been so prior to Pearl Harbor (Dec. 7, 1941), it would have been perfectly legal. Our American treaty of peace with Germany required friendship between the two groups of citizens.

h) Only one, Smythe, claimed to be a Klansman, but Grand Kleagle Colescott denies that Smythe was a Klansman. Smythe, head of the paper "organization", Protestant War Veterans, never advocated liquidation of Catholics. Clark, who wanted to liquidate (in 1927) Jewish Communists, is a Catholic. No more than three or four of the German defendants were Bundists; none of the Americans joined the Bund.

(i) As the great majority of the defendants deny these charges, and no evidence was introduced to justify them, they are "eyewash".

(j) The "FBI" entered the case in 1943 (NOT ten years ago). They did not appear before the first grand jury, and the second grand jury heard only two or three "FBI" men. In 1938 or '39 the "FBI" gave a clean bill of health to the German-American Bund.

It is true that the Justice Department started against the brilliant writer, George Sylvester Viereck, over three years ago, but not until February or March, 1942, did they begin their Anti-Semiitc hunt, when they began to call before their dominated grand jury the employees of "Social Justice".

The Department's first foolish step was to EXTEND the Maloney grand Jury illegally and to take up during its second extension the investigation of alleged "sedition", for which it had no authority under the law, and in violation of Sec. 421 of Title 28, U. S. Code. That is why they abandoned the first indictment.

(k) Of course the defendants are proud to be charged by the "Post" with being "nationalist", which is a synonym for "patriots" according to the dictionary; but the indictment did not charge that they "ATTEMPTED" to spread mutiny among servicemen.

(l) Any good lawyer would tell Riesel that the defendants cannot be tried "individually" in Washington; nor individually or in groups in other judicial districts without a NEW indictment, and the statute of limitations forbids this, as it certainly would in the case of McWilliams, who has been gone from (m) the "Street corners of New York" for more than three years.

(n) McWilliams has three brothers in the service, and he will swear that he never suggested to any man mutiny or insubordination. He did make speeches in 1940 against what he termed "Jewish political domination", but on the outbreak of our war (Pearl Harbor) ceased his discussion of Jewish matters altogether.

The Post backed Riesel up with a double-column editorial, entitled "Biddle's Failure", blaming the Attorney-General for bungling the case throughout; but the paper condemns and regards as criminal "demagogic race-haters, labor-haters, Russia-haters" and nationalists, and thinks in some form, as a deterrent example, the defendants should be TRIED AGAIN.

(My "14 points" have been verified by able lawyers).

HITLERISM IN REVERSE

In Hitlerland employers were compelled to discriminate AGAINST Jews and to hire Gentiles.

In Newdealland our employers are asked by the proposed "FEPC" law to discriminate AGAINST WHITE GENTILES and to hire Negroes, Chinese, Japanese and Jews, or run the risk of being haled into court or blackmailed into paying hush money.

This is Hitlerism in reverse.

Why Persecute Ellis O. Jones ?

Editor, The Broom:

I think some of your select circle of readers would like to know something of my parole status and interesting details thereof as pertaining to the L. A. conviction in the U. S. Court in July, 1942.

I have been treated shamefully in this matter by the Parole Board. Although I was eligible Nov. 22, 1943, I was not even given a hearing in the matter until the following March. That in itself was illegal. Then the application was summarily denied although I was not notified until some months later.

There is nothing either in my Jew-inspired conviction or in my record before and since to warrant such a denial. Quite the contrary, I think I may say without undue conceit. And so we must conclude that the Board of Parole is a part of the conspiracy to deprive me unjustly of my life and liberty. They have treated me much worse in the matter than they customarily treat the most dangerous and abandoned criminals.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the now celebrated Hartzel case furnished a special reason why, more than receiving a parole, we should have been freed entirely since the evidence in my case was dove-mild compared with that alleged against Hartzel. If the Department of Justice truly desired to be worthy of its name, it would have immediately recognized the Hartzel adjudication as the law of the land, moved to free all those who have been similarly convicted, several hundred now being in custody, I understand.

The Board of Parole certainly has complete discretion in the premises and their failure to grant parole to all those to whom the Hartzel case would apply is undeniably a black mark upon their record. ELLIS O. JONES.

Red Plotting Seen In Ouster

BAN on AMERICANS REGARDED as BACKING NEWS CURB CHARGE

WASHINGTON,—The expelling of four members of an American military mission from Bulgaria by Soviet Russia served to uphold the charge of Senator Guy Gillette (Democrat), Iowa , that the U. S. R. R. has imposed a news black-out from the Baltics to the Balkans to screen its expansionist designs.

It was the second expulsion of the four Americans, attached to the Office of Strategic Services, according to news from abroad, and supplemented reports that American observers had been banned from all Russian occupied territory. Following their first ejection last October, they had been permitted to reenter after State Department representations.
